Ravensworth is turning 50 — So let the party begin!

The first sales open house for our subdivision was held December 1959 and the county officially recognized the Deed of Dedication in February 1960.

So we want to celebrate.

Here are ideas being considered:

Block party with food, DJ and moon bounce

Fun walk / run

Scavenger hunt which could include a search in Accotink Park

Art contest and show for young and old.
The theme: Ravensworth Farm

History trivia contest about Ravensworth Farm

We would love more volunteers to plan the activities.

Interested? Let us hear from you if you want to volunteer and/or if you any additional ideas.

MOULTRIE ROAD UPDATE

Many of you have asked for updates on the tragic crime involving the murder of three individuals on Moultrie Road on November 19, 2008. The Police recently issued a public request for information. The Police continue to express their belief that this incident was an isolated event committed by individuals specifically targeting the victims, and not some random crime of violence.

The Release is as follows:

FAIRFAX COUNTY CRIME SOLVERS

News Release, Case # 1259

Release Date: February 4, 2009

UPDATE - Detectives Release New Details; Still Seek Suspect Information

Police are releasing new details regarding the deaths of three men in the hope someone will step forward with new suspect information. Investigators believe Terence Strobe, 38, Ryan Strobe, 26, and Andres Yelicie, 26, were killed during a narcotics-involved robbery. One victim described the suspects as males, wearing black clothing with the words "Police" and "SWAT" displayed.

Witnesses observed an older-model Chevrolet Blazer or Jeep, near the home on the night of the homicide and the day prior. The vehicle was light-colored, possibly gold, and had Maryland license plates. A second vehicle was also seen near the home about one hour prior to the murders. It was described as a white, compact car with Maryland license plates.

Detectives do not believe the suspects were direct acquaintances of the victims; however, the suspects may have learned of the narcotics sales in the victims' home indirectly through friends of the victims.

Detectives continue to follow up on leads in this case. Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS(8477), e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES(274637). In addition to the $1,000 cash reward being offered by Crime Solvers, an additional private reward of $10,000 is also being offered for information that leads to an arrest in this case. As always, callers never have to give their names or appear in court.

Crime Solvers Seeks Suspects in Triple Homicide

Fairfax County Crime Solvers is asking for the public's assistance in identifying the people responsible for killing three men at a home in the Springfield area. Around 9:45 p.m. on Wednesday, November 19, police were called to a home in the 5400 block of Moultrie Road for an injured, adult male. Officers located the man outside with multiple injuries. They determined there were additional injured victims inside a home across the street. Officers made entry into that home and located the two other victims. All three were transported to Inova Fairfax Hospital and died a short time later.

Terence Strobe, 38, Ryan Strobe, 26 and Andres Yelicie, 26, of the Springfield area, died as a result of multiple stab wounds to their upper bodies. Detectives have reason to believe this incident was not random in nature.

Anyone with information is asked to contact Crime Solvers by phone at 1-866-411-TIPS(8477), e-mail at www.fairfaxcrimesolvers.org or text "TIP187" plus your message to CRIMES(274637). In addition to the $1,000 cash reward being offered by Crime Solvers, an additional private reward of $10,000 is also being offered for information that leads to an arrest in this case. As always, callers never have to give their names or appear in court.

RABIES INFORMATION

Recently two raccoons were picked up in Ravensworth Farm exhibiting signs of possible rabies. Parents—warn your children not to approach or touch wild animals that are acting “strange” or “tame.” If you see an animal that is acting strangely call the number for Fairfax County's Department of Animal Control at 703-830-1100 - Option 3.

What is rabies?

Rabies is an always-fatal viral disease that affects the nervous system of mammals. The rabies virus generally is transmitted in the saliva of an infected animal. People and animals are usually exposed to rabies through the bite of a rabid animal. Vaccination protects animals and people from rabies.

How common is rabies in Fairfax County?

In recent years, Fairfax County has had the highest number of cases of animal rabies of any county in Virginia. The large number of cases compared with other counties is an indication of Fairfax County's large human population and the greater opportunity for interaction with wildlife. In 2000, 72 cases of rabid animals (JPG file, 49K) were reported in Fairfax County. In 2001, 46 cases of rabid animals (JPG file, 77K) were reported in Fairfax County, 3 of these being in the pilot program area.

Which animals get rabies?

Although any mammal can get rabies, most rabies cases occur in wild animals. Raccoons, which are the reservoir for terrestrial rabies on the East Coast, account for the largest number of cases - about 57% of the cases in Fairfax County for 2001. Of the 549 rabies cases statewide in 1999, 60% were raccoon, 20% were skunk, 9% were fox, and 4% were domestic cats. Bats were 4% of cases. The remaining 3% of were groundhog, cow, dog, bobcat and horse.

How do I know if an animal has rabies?

Wild animals may move slowly or may act as if they are tame. A pet that is usually friendly may snap at you or try to bite. Some signs of rabies are changes in behavior, general sickness, problems swallowing, increased drooling and/or aggression.

What can you do to protect yourself and your pets against rabies?

Rabies in cats, dogs and ferrets can be prevented by having them vaccinated by a veterinarian. An unvaccinated pet can pose a serious health risk to you and others. Virginia law requires dogs and cats to be vaccinated at four months of age and to receive regular boosters during their lifetime. For more information about how to get your pet vaccinated, call the Fairfax County Animal Shelter at 703-830-1100. Some other things you can do to prevent being exposed to rabies are:

- Enjoy wild animals at a safe distance and never touch unfamiliar or wild animals.
- If you see an animal that is acting strangely call your jurisdiction's animal control agency. The number for Fairfax County's Department of Animal Control is 703-830-1100 - Option 3.
- If an animal bites you, wash the wound with soap and water for at least five minutes and contact your doctor immediately. Animal bites should be reported to the Fairfax County Animal Services Division Dispatch at 703-830-1100 - Option 3 and the Health Department at 703-246-2433 during normal business hours or 571-274-2296 after hours, weekends, and holidays.
- If your pet is bitten or scratched by a wild animal, contact your veterinarian immediately. Your pet should be given a rabies booster vaccination.
- Make sure that your trashcans and pet food are secured to avoid attracting wild or stray animals.

WATCH OUT FOR THIS SUSPICIOUS VEHICLE!

Be on the look out for a white Ford F-150 pickup truck, Virginia tag KHY-2356. Occupants of the truck may include a black male, white female and an older white male. This truck is being investigated in connection with four daytime break-ins in another part of the county and was recently seen in the Kings Park area. If you see this vehicle anywhere in Ravensworth Farm, please call the police immediately at 703-691-2131.

NEIGHBORHOOD WATCH

It's time to resurrect the Neighborhood Watch Program! Please help to make our streets safer by volunteering to be part of our Neighborhood Watch program. It only takes a few hours a month. Interested? Contact Steve Price at 703-321-8711.
