VOL. XLVII Issue 8

FROM THE PRESIDENT:

Dear Neighbors:

It is April Fool's Day and I am sitting at my computer watching the news. New England got another sixteen inches of snow and we once again dodged the bullet, just a little rain that will help out our flower beds. Other than that one good snow early in the season, we seem to have had a mild winter. I guess my going out and buying a huge snow blower had something to do with that. If I hadn't, I am sure it would have been a repeat of last year's mega blizzard.

At our board meeting this week we were discussing upcoming events in our community. On Sunday, April 3 we will have the Hay ride after multiple postponements due to inclement weather. On the following Saturday, April 9 will be the clean-up at Lake Accotink. Each year this clean-up has a great turnout and the participants were given a box lunch in appreciation for donating their time to clean up the lake. This year, however, due to fiscal constraints, they were not able to buy lunch for the volunteers. Our Association has decided to chip in and try to defray the cost of lunches for the volunteers of this worthy cause. Lake Accotink is a great recreational facility and having it in our backyard adds value to our homes, keeping it clean benefits us all.

Please support our local plant sale at the Ravensworth Shopping Center on Saturday, May 7th. Our garden club does a great job and sells plants that do well in our yards. Plus, the price is great, too.

Another big event is the very popular neighborhood YARD SALE being held on May 14. This annual event is held at the Ravensworth Community Pool parking lot and all are encouraged to bring items to sell. As always, the Boy Scouts will be on hand to sell refreshments.

Just around the corner is the opening of Ravensworth Community Pool. Membership is available to families living in Ravensworth Farm and the cost for the whole summer is a bargain when you consider going on vacation between gas prices and rental costs. Our Community Pool has an excellent swim team and they compete against neighboring towns.

There are lots of things going on in our community every month. Make sure you check out The Farmer for upcoming events, and please support the advertisers in our paper.

Marty Robinson, President, RFCA, prez@ravensworthfarm.org

RAVENSWORTH RESIDENT MARY LIPSEY HONORED

Mary Lipsey has been selected to receive the Fairfax County Volunteer Champion Award from the Fairfax County Board of Supervisors. Mary, a retired history teacher, is being honored for her work researching and preserving historical cemeteries across the county.

Lipsey started an organization called the Fairfax County Cemetery Preservation Association. Together with volunteers, she has organized restorations of almost a dozen private cemeteries.

Visit her website at: <http://www.honorfairfaxcemeteries.org/about>

The Connection papers did a great article honoring Mary and her work. Read more about her at:

BUILD-YOUR-OWN RAIN BARREL WORKSHOP (RESIDENTS OF RAVENSWORTH FARM ONLY)

Date: Thursday, May 26, 2011
 Time: 6:00PM — 9:00PM
 Location: Ravensworth Elementary School Cafeteria, 5411 Nutting Drive,
 Springfield, VA 22151

The RFCA in partnership with the Fairfax County Stormwater Planning Division is sponsoring a rain barrel workshop. Make a rain barrel and collect rainwater from your downspout for your garden. The rain barrel is sturdy, made from recycled pickle and olive barrels, and can hold 55 gallons. Rain barrels can help save water and they mitigate some HOT lanes storm water impacts by reducing runoff into Lake Accotink from adjoining neighborhoods. Reusing rain water helps promote healthy ecosystems in our streams, rivers, and the Chesapeake Bay.

Please note:

- you must be a resident of Ravensworth Farm
- there is a limit of one free rain barrel per household.*
- limited to the first 50 individuals who sign up (due to space constraints please limit attendance to 2 people per household)

*a second barrel will be available at the workshop (first come first serve) if supply exceeds demand

The rain barrels are being paid for by a grant from Transurban and Fluor (HOT lanes' developer). Some rain barrels can cost upwards of $100.

Register here: <http://www.surveymonkey.com/s/WVQ22LL>

REGISTRATION IS NOW OPEN!

RAIN BARRELS STILL AVAILABLE!

For more information on rain barrels and installation, see the Northern Virginia Soil and Water Conservation District website at <http://www.fairfaxcounty.gov/nvswcd/rainbarrels.htm>. If you do not own a computer and would like to register for the workshop, please call Fairfax County Stormwater Planning Division at 703-324-5500 and ask for Catie Torgersen.

MARK YOUR CALENDARS FOR THE NEXT RFCA MEETING

Plan now to join us for the last RFCA general meeting of the year.

When: Thursday, May 26

Time: 6:30 pm business meeting
 7:00 pm rain barrel workshop

During the short business meeting, we will elect the RFCA board of directors. Please sign up for a rain barrel and join us!

RFCA BOARD MEETINGS MOVE BACK TO WEDNESDAYS

The monthly board meetings of the Civic Association will move back to Wednesday evenings for the rest of the term:

The next meetings are:

- Weds. May 4th
- Time & Place: 7:30 pm School Faculty Lounge

PLEASE ACCEPT OUR APOLOGY...

The RFCA board apologizes for the last-minute cancellation of the wildlife presentation scheduled for the March general meeting. The speaker's husband was involved in a car accident that evening. RFCA will try to reschedule her again for the Fall General meeting. Over 60 residents came out to hear her. We're sorry for the inconvenience. Thank you for your interest in this topic.

IT TAKES A VILLAGE... FOR THE GOLDEN RAVENS

Sec. of State, Hillary Clinton once said it takes a village to raise a child. Some villages have definite traditional rituals to mark the passage from childhood to adulthood. At the other end of life, in some villages the senior citizens are respected and consulted for their well earned wisdom. But there are no formal rituals to mark the passage of older adults into their natural maturity here in America.

Someone said that life here is a race between retirement and obsolescence. When the time comes to face obsolescence and retirement it helps to have a village for support. There are many groups organized in Fairfax County to provide such a place for its seniors. The Golden Ravens have been such a group for the senior residents of our village.

Sharing a meal or learning a new idea once a month together provides a way to feel the energy of community when the daily commute to work no longer is calling. We meet the fourth Wednesday of each month in the Community of Christ Church, unless we venture out to lunch. In April we will be lunching at Green Spring Village. The Golden Ravens invite all Ravensworth seniors to join us.

We also wish to acknowledge the support and hospitality provided by the Community of Christ Church which provides facilities for the monthly meetings. Call Joan Crofford to get acquainted at 703-321-7809.

GREEN THUMB GARDEN CLUB

Join the Garden Club on the first Wednesday of the month, May 4 as we take a field trip to Great Falls.

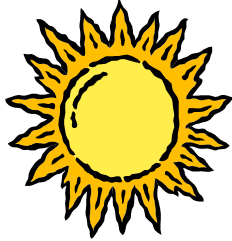

Bring a bag lunch and call Laura Asiello with questions. 703-321-7840

Don't forget-- join us at our annual Plant Sale on Saturday, May 7th at the Ravensworth shopping center. The best and most affordable plants in my yard have come from this sale!

Gardening tip for May:

After your azaleas have bloomed is the best time to prune them. Make sure you let plenty of light get to the entire plant, so don't "hedge" them off. They can die from the inside-out that way.

TORNADOS & RAVENSWORTH HOMES

This question was submitted to the forum, Ask Fairfax:

During a tornado, where is the best place to seek shelter since our homes are 50 years old? Plus, both our bathrooms have windows and we have no walk-in closets. We cannot fit in a closet the depth of a hanger that is also full of clothes. Some homes in our neighborhood don't have any interior rooms, as well.

Answer:

During a tornado, one of the hazards that you have to protect yourself against is flying debris. There is also a limited amount of warning time, so staying in the house is likely to be your best bet. Since you have windows in all of your rooms, here are some suggestions to help protect yourself and your family:

- Take shelter under a bed, heavy table or heavy furniture
- If time permits, cover yourself with a heavy blanket to help protect against glass
- Take shelter in the bathtub

Inside a sturdy structure is always best. Pre-planning and identifying how you and your family will react to an emergency is great way to get prepared.

BACKYARD WILDLIFE

If you have any question whether you may have a rabid or dangerous animal nearby, call either the police non-emergency phone number, 703-691-2131, or 911.

Don't approach animals you don't know. Any animal can react unpredictably. For safety, just let the animal move on, then take a look at your backyard and consider making it animal-proof. Animals that are around people or homes could be sick or injured, which could make them act aggressively. They also could be rabid or carrying ticks. Interaction alone could be grounds for having an animal destroyed. If your goal is to get the animal to leave, don't approach it or make contact with it. Let it move along on its own.

Why not trap or relocate a nuisance beast? For one, it's against the law. It violates state game regulations, and relocation rarely works. The animal sometimes returns to the site of the problem, starts conflict problems in new areas, or doesn't survive the stress of the move. In addition, if the animal was there because the habitat was good for it, another animal of the same species may move in. It is against Park Authority regulations, state law, and sound wildlife management to release any animal, wild or domestic, on parkland.

Aggressive Animal

Do not approach any animal.

If you have any question whether you may have a rabid or dangerous animal nearby, call either the police non-emergency phone number, 703-691-2131, or 911.

Report any wildlife acting in a dangerous manner, whether on parkland or in your neighborhood, to the Animal Control Department at 703-691-2131.

Injured or Sick Animal

People with the best intentions can get into the worst situations. A few years ago, a good Park Authority friend rescued a raccoon from her own property shortly after she moved to Virginia. She was not aware of rabies issues in Virginia, and after the raccoon sickened and died, rabies was discovered. The raccoon had been in contact with the rescuer's children and other neighborhood youngsters, and 27 people underwent rabies vaccinations. It was not the best of first impressions.

The Wildlife Rescue League, a non-profit organization, provides wildlife rehabilitation services in Fairfax County. The Rescue League hotline number is 703-440-0800. Although it's usually best for wildlife to be left in the wild, sometimes an injured animal may not recover on its own. To learn about helping wildlife, check our article "Ten Ways to Help Your Wildlife!". Wildlife rehabilitation is not an amateur hobby. It's regulated and licensed by the state.

Nuisance Animal

The best action is preventive. Try animal-proofing your home or yard. No single action will work every time, and you may have to try several things, but here are some ideas that may help keep wildlife away.

General tips to animal-proof your yard:

Remove or reduce sources of food

In other words, please don't feed the bears. Take pet foods (and pets!) indoors; secure trash; fence gardens.

Remove sources of shelter

Wood piles, mounds of yard clippings, and other vegetative debris can attract rodents and reptiles.

Keep the animal out of your yard

Fences, chemical deterrents, and creative plantings may prevent unwanted wildlife from trespassing.

EMERGENCY PHONE NUMBER FOR WASTEWATER AND STORM WATER BACKUPS

Service has been restored to the county's regular 24/7 emergency phone number for reporting sewer back-ups. To report these problems, residents should now call 703-323-1211.

This number also can be used to report storm drain flooding after normal business hours. During business hours, however, residents should call 703-877-2800, to report storm drain flooding.

For street flooding, call the Virginia Department of Transportation at 1-800-FOR-ROAD (367-7623).
